Region Five Sponsors Ethics Symposium

The Region Five Homeland Security Planning District is sponsoring a Medical Ethics Symposium on Friday, April 16, 2010.

Ethical decision-making is required when health care leadership must balance the needs and interests of the individual, the organization and society. Those involved in this decision making process must consider ethical principles such as justice, autonomy, beneficence and fairness, as well as professional ethical standards and codes.

Johnson County Wins Outstanding Achievement Award

Johnson County Emergency Management was named the recipient of the 2009 Outstanding Achievement Award by the United Way of Johnson County. The award was presented to Dave Wilson and B.J. Dvorak at the United Way's Community Celebration Event on March 31, 2010.

"Throughout the past year, we have been in awe of the knowledge, skill, resources and energy of this organization and its leadership. We have observed their excellence in collaborating with and bringing together virtually every sector of our community, and we have benefitted from their partnership and support," said Christine Scheetz, president and CEO of the United Way of Johnson County. "Last summer, Johnson

B.J. Dvorak and Dave Wilson

County Emergency Management provided United Way with a nearly $12,000 grant to help us build the infrastructure for the Emergency Volunteer Center – funding that was critical for purchasing laptops, a wireless printer...fluorescent safety vests, cell phones and other supplies necessary for mobilizing the Emergency Volunteer Center at sites where volunteers are needed.

"Johnson County Emergency Management has been responsible for coordinating efforts across government entities, our health organizations, businesses and nonprofit organizations, and improving our communication and readiness for any disaster that may befall our community in the future."

Congratulations, Johnson County Emergency Management! Ω

Butler County Dispatchers Named "Telecommunicators of the Year"

Butler County dispatchers received the prestigious Telecommunicator of the Year Award from the Iowa Association of Public-Safety Communications Officials (APCO) at the annual spring banquet on March 23, 2010. Butler County dispatchers were recognized for their loyalty and excellent service to the people of Butler County during the natural disasters and other serious events they have handled over the last three years.

Congratulations, Butler County dispatchers! Ω

Updates and Deadlines for HSGP, HMEP Grants

Homeland Security Grant Program (HSGP)

FFY 2007: Sub-grantees who requested extensions were approved to May 15, 2010.

FFY 2008: Quarterly project progress reports are due to HSEMD by April 15, 2010.

FFY 2009: Sub-grantees who have submitted budgets and work plans should receive notification from HSEMD if they are good or if more information is needed. This year, Agreement Articles will be issued to the sub-grantee once their work plan and budget are satisfactory. HSEMD will schedule meetings with sub-grantees as the Articles of Agreement are issued. Sub-grantees are not allowed to spend and/or incur costs for 09 HSGP prior to signing the Articles of Agreement.

One additional note....The grants program, project and fiscal officers began first-round review of 2009 HSGP budgets and work plans on April 2. None were approved as written. Subgrantees have been, or will be within the next week, informed of required revisions. Reviews are ongoing with a target to generate agreement articles in late April.

FFY 2010: The Investment Justifications (IJs) and funding amounts have been decided. Some IJs need revisions. Those applicants need to submit any required revisions to HSEMD by April 14, 2010.

Hazardous Material Emergency Preparedness Grant (HMEP)

FFY 2011: Applications are due back to HSEMD by April 21, 2010. Ω
