

Speaker & Professional title:

Brian Pribyl, Iowa Department of Transportation Emergency Manager

Speaker Biography:

Brian Pribyl, represents and aligns Iowa DOT resources with the various needs to respond to and recover from disasters, emergencies, and other disruptions that impact both primary highway related situations and others as requested safely and effectively.

Brian spent his first ten years at Iowa DOT in the field maintenance environment at multiple maintenance garages and has spent another 10 years in Traffic Operations administering and coordinating a wide variety of response and recovery plans and programs which include agency wide goals and initiatives.