

Oct. 9-11, 2024

DMACC | Ankeny FFA Enrichment Center

Speaker & Professional title:

Dylan Lynch, Election Security Specialist, Secretary of State

Speaker Biography:

Dylan has over eight years of experience in elections, including administration, policy, and education. In his current role, Dylan focuses on informing County Auditors on emerging cyber and physical security threats, educating on proper mitigations, and providing resources to better secure Iowa elections. He also regularly coordinates and engages state, local, and federal partners in election security initiatives across the state.