

Speaker & Professional title:

Wm. Scott McLain, Iowa Department of Transportation Emergency Coordinator

Speaker Biography:

Wm. Scott McLain administers, directs, manages, and coordinates the activities and operations of the DOT's Emergency Management and collaborates on issues and support with Iowa Department of Homeland Security and Emergency Management (HSEM). He provides administration support to the Federal Highway Administration – Emergency Relief Program and Missions assigned by HSEM to the DOT.

Scott has a combined 18 years working in Emergency Management. He retired from the Iowa National Guard in 2020 where he had served full-time as the Joint Operations Center (JOC) NCOIC – Emergency Management. His military career spanned 32 years with the last 14 years working in emergency management at the Local, State, and National levels. Through his National Guard position, he provided Emergency Management assistance and training to other States and Kosovo.