

Session Title:

Let's respond to a plane crash today

Speaker(s) & Professional title:

Tim McClung, Aviation Director, Iowa DOT

David Hintz, Iowa Safety Program Manager, FAA

Summary:

Every first responder could potentially be asked to respond to an airplane crash today. This session will provide an overview of aviation activities happening in the skies over Iowa. Learn basics of the response and resources for additional training options. Learn about a real-life example from people who were there. It's a great primer for how you might plan for and respond to a plane crash.
