

2023 Iowa Homeland Security Conference

October 11-13, 2023

Speaker & Professional title:

Timothy R Gablehouse, Attorney Gablehouse Granberg, LLC

Speaker Biography:

Mr. Gablehouse is an attorney with Gablehouse Granberg LLC. His practice focuses on management of environmental compliance, emergency planning, and corrective action projects. This includes management and litigation of compliance and liability issues surrounding hazardous materials accident prevention programs, emergency planning, emergency response, community right-to-know programs, and continuity of operations. He is a frequent national and international speaker on these topics, including Congressional testimony. He also participates in numerous advisory committees, councils, and policy forums including those evaluating and setting policy guidance for the protection of environmental justice and rights under the ADA in these arenas. Internationally, he has been active in these fields with frequent participation in workshops and meetings sponsored by OECD and UNEP. He was the primary author of the UNEP handbook "Awareness and Preparedness for Emergencies at Local Level" which outlines programs for active community preparedness for all-hazards.
