October 11-13, 2023

Speaker & Professional title:

Lacey Hogan, Senior Emergency Preparedness and Response Specialist,
Alliant Energy

Speaker Biography:

Lacey Hogan is a Senior Emergency Preparedness and Response Specialist at Alliant Energy. She started her career with Alliant Energy in 2014 as a Resource Coordinator in Dispatch System Operations. Prior to joining Alliant Energy, she served in the United States Air Force.

In her current role, she is responsible for the communication, coordination, and collaboration of internal and external resources to mitigate, prepare for, respond to, and recover from incidents impacting Alliant Energy and industry operations. In addition to planning and preparedness, she fills the role of Deputy Incident Commander for Alliant Energy's Corporate Incident Response team. She plans, participates in, and evaluates the effectiveness of trainings, drills and exercises designed to enhance Alliant Energy's incident preparedness and response.

She serves as a liaison between Alliant Energy, the utility industry, and public partners (spanning from local to federal partners) to develop and foster relationships in order to enhance community resiliency, response, and recovery efforts. Lacey serves as the Vice Chair on the Safeguard Iowa Partnership Board of Directors, is a member of the Executive Committee Advisory Council for the Edison Electric Institute's Midwest Mutual Assistance Group and serves as the Vice Chair for the Wisconsin Mutual Assistance Group.
